MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, Professional Selection Panel

FROM: Chairman, CIA Career Service Board

SUBJECT: Responsibilities of the Professional Selection Panel

REFERENCE: Staff Study, dated 17 November 1952, from Chairman, Professional Selection Panel to Chairman, CIA Career Service Board

1. For the time being the CIA Career Service Board does not wish the Professional Selection Panel to give consideration to individual cases of applicants who have been flatly disqualified for employment by any one of the three Offices - Security, Medical or Personnel.

2. The Board recognizes that the Panel can not implement at this time all phases of the selection program specified in CIA [REDACTED] It does, however, desire that the Panel should give priority to:

a. the formulation of criteria concerning over-all suitability to work in CIA on a career basis,

b. examination of individual cases of applicants or trial-service employees ^{through GS-11} without respect to grade where doubt is cast on suitability to work in CIA on a career basis as a result of development of administrative or marginal information by the (three Offices mentioned above) and the Office of Training,

c. recommendation to the appropriate authority for the disposition of each case so examined.

3. The Board desires the Panel to report to the Board at its next meeting progress made in carrying out the above objectives.
